Top Tips

"Attend ALL trainings, conventions and seminars. Consult with your upline and side lines that are successful. Be inspired and accept help from the B:HIP family. Be willing to challenge your comfort zone and inspire and help other people. Success for ALL."

What led you to start your own business?

"I had good personal results with the supplements for energy and weight management and I wanted to share this lifestyle with other people, especially in my local area but also nationally and internationally."

Why B:HIP?

"At B:HIP we put our heart into the business. There is no success without everyone helping each other. The bonus plan is unique. I had worked previously in 2 other direct selling companies but at the time I did not see commendable results without extreme effort."

“Challenge your comfort zone!”

New partners can get started quickly with spare time and run it as a part-time business alongside work until they reach their way up to a full-time income if that is what you are looking for. Results come, depending on the effort put in!"

How has your life changed so far?

"I started because I was interested in a new lifestyle. Luckily, what I found with B:HIP is that I can build up my business in my spare time. As an extra bonus, I have much more energy from using the products and I now exercise at the local fitness centre. I am looking forward to reaching my goals both personally and professionally!" "
